Description:

This course will enable students to enhance and develop their drawing and sketching skills.

If you would like to be able to draw well but have limited experience since your schooldays then this is the class for you. Helena will enable you to understand and develop basic drawing techniques and this fun class will improve your overall confidence in drawing.

This course is designed both for those who have hardly lifted a pencil in years if at all, and who want to start at the very beginning, and for those who can draw reasonably well but have missed learning some of the really important foundation rules.
