There can never be a gift as great as the understanding of an Art, a parent can give to his child. Its a gift, one enjoys for his life time. When a child draws, each drawing gives a child a sense of pride and accomplishment. This encourages them and builds their self-confidence in their education and other academic studies. The course will teach the children; right aesthetics of drawing using both there unchallenging imagination and the vision of Old Masters. The program will focus much on the growth of the child's imagination and will also make them draw some simple life objects.
